

Galatians 2:20 "I am crucified in Christ, nevertheless, I live: yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me."

This verse is a profound statement about the believer's relationship with Christ, emphasizing that a believer's life is not their own, but rather lived by the power and grace of Christ dwelling within them. The song below, expresses in music the words of the Scripture verse. My prayer and hope is that you can sing it with the joy and assurance of God's love.

Yet Not I But Through Christ In Me

Jonny Robinson, Michael Farren, Rich Thompson

What gift of grace is Jesus, my Redeemer There is no more for heaven now to give
He is my joy, my righteousness and freedom
My steadfast love, my deep and boundless peace.

The night is dark, but I am not forsaken      For by my side the Savior He will stay
I labor on in weakness and rejoicing      For in my need His power is displayed
To this I hold my Shepherd will defend me
Through the deepest valley He will lead
Oh, the night has been won and I shall overcome!
Yet not I but through Christ in me.

No fate I dread, I know I am forgiven      The future sure, the price it has been paid
For Jesus bled and suffered for my pardon
And He was raised to overthrow the grave
To this I hold; my sin has been defeated      Jesus now and ever is my plea
Oh, the chains are released, I can sing, I am free!
Yet not I but through Christ in me.

To this I hold my hope is only Jesus      All the glory evermore to Him
When the race is complete still my lips shall repeat:      Yet not I but Christ in me.
